

BISA CPD Annual Workshop: Refusing Carcerality
14th September, Kings College London (KCL)

A one-day workshop aimed at continuing CPD's ongoing research and mentorship project on "abolition as an unanswered question", through a deeper engagement with carcerality. By interrogating the multiple scales through which detention, imprisonment, policing and punishment shape and structure everyday life (and vice versa), we hope to cultivate new ways of understanding and strengthening the creative, collective praxis required to refuse them.
